Plasan, owned by Kibbutz Sasa, has won a NIS 25 million tender for the supply of dozens of Sand Cat armored jeeps to the Israel Police.

The Sand Cat is based on a commercial Ford F-Series 4x4 chassis adapted for military use by Manning Equipment Co. Inc. and fitted with Plasan Sasa designed and manufactured modular armor kits made from steel, ceramics, and composites.

Plasan is a subcontractor for Ford Motor Co. (NYSE: F) importer Delek Automotive Systems Ltd. (TASE: DLEA) for the purpose of the contract.

Plasan CEO Dan Ziv thanked the police for choosing the Sand Cat and the vote of confidence in the company's armor kits.

Plasan's customers include the IDF and other armies around the world.
